

Existence and long-time behaviour for gradient flows of non convex functionals

Riccarda Rossi, Brescia

In this talk, I will first present some results on existence and long-time behaviour for the solutions to a class of gradient flow equations for non convex functionals. Secondly, I will discuss some applications of such results to evolution problems arising in phase transitions.